Zalig Aan Zee

KNOKKE-HEIST, BELGIUM

Located in the Belgian seaside resort Knokke-Heist, this charming holiday house has been completely renovated and designed by Stefaan Van Dyck and his wife Kathleen Cassiers.

Reclaimed timber with a patina of cement, concrete floors and a color palette of black, white and sandy tones evoke an instant beach vibe and relaxed mood. The layout of the house makes it very bright because of the open-plan living room and kitchen that leads to the sunny garden and outdoor lounge.

Bedrooms and bathrooms are located across the first floor. The sleeping loft under the gable with its built-in beds and an additional pull-out bed in reclaimed wood is a paradise for children. The house can easily accommodate up to ten people. Ideal for a weekend with family and friends. Zalig Aan Zee offers six lovely holiday homes on the Belgian Coast for ten to twenty people, all in the typical “Zalig Aan Zee” style.
